PART B

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE EAST AFRICAN COMMUNITY COMMON MARKET

ARTICLE 2

Establishment of the East African Community Common Market

1. In order to promote the objectives of the Community provided for under Article 5 of the Treaty and in accordance with the provisions of this Protocol, the Partner States hereby establish a common market as an integral part of the Community.
2. The Common Market established under paragraph 1, shall be called the East African Community Common Market (hereinafter referred to as “the Common Market”).
3. The Common Market shall be managed in accordance with the relevant laws of the Community.
4. In accordance with the provisions of Articles 76 and 104 of the Treaty, this Protocol provides for the following:
 - (a) the free movement of goods;
 - (b) the free movement of persons;
 - (c) the free movement of labour;

- (d) the right of establishment;
 - (e) the right of residence;
 - (f) the free movement of services; and
 - (g) the free movement of capital.
5. The establishment of the Common Market shall, notwithstanding paragraph 1, be progressive.

ARTICLE 3

Principles of the Common Market

1. The Common Market shall be guided by the fundamental and operational principles of the Community as enshrined in Articles 6 and 7 of the Treaty.
2. Without prejudice to paragraph 1, the Partner States undertake to:
 - (a) observe the principle of non-discrimination of nationals of other Partner States on grounds of nationality;
 - (b) accord treatment to nationals of other Partner States, not less favourable than the treatment accorded to third parties;
 - (c) ensure transparency in matters concerning the other Partner States; and
 - (d) share information for the implementation of this Protocol.

ARTICLE 4

Objectives of the Common Market

1. The overall objective of the Common Market is to widen and deepen cooperation among the Partner States in the economic and social fields for the benefit of the Partner States.
2. The specific objectives of the Common Market are to:
 - (a) accelerate economic growth and development of the Partner States through the attainment of the free movement of goods, persons and labour, the rights of establishment and residence and the free movement of services and capital;

- (b) strengthen, coordinate and regulate the economic and trade relations among the Partner States in order to promote accelerated, harmonious and balanced development within the Community;
 - (c) sustain the expansion and integration of economic activities within the Community, the benefit of which shall be equitably distributed among the Partner States;
 - (d) promote common understanding and cooperation among the nationals of the Partner States for their economic and social development; and
 - (e) enhance research and technological advancement to accelerate economic and social development.
3. In order to realise and attain the objectives provided for in this Article, the Partner States shall co-operate in, integrate and harmonise their policies in areas provided for in this Protocol and in such other areas as the Council may determine in order to achieve the objectives of the Common Market.

ARTICLE 5

Scope of Co-operation in the Common Market

- 1. The provisions of this Protocol shall apply to any activity undertaken in cooperation by the Partner States to achieve the free movement of goods, persons, labour, services and capital and to ensure the enjoyment of the rights of establishment and residence of their nationals within the Community.
- 2. For the purposes of paragraph 1 and pursuant to paragraph 4 of Article 2 of this Protocol, the Partner States agree to:

- (a) eliminate tariff, non-tariff and technical barriers to trade; harmonise and mutually recognize standards and implement a common trade policy for the Community;
 - (b) ease cross-border movement of persons and eventually adopt an integrated border management system;
 - (c) remove restrictions on movement of labour, harmonise labour policies, programs, legislation, social services, provide for social security benefits and establish common standards and measures for association of workers and employers, establish employment promotion centres and eventually adopt a common employment policy;
 - (d) remove restrictions on the right of establishment and residence of nationals of other Partner States in their territory in accordance with the provisions of this Protocol;
 - (e) remove measures that restrict movement of services and service suppliers, harmonise standards to ensure acceptability of services traded; and
 - (f) eliminate restrictions on free movement of capital; ensure convertibility of currencies; promote investments in capital markets (stock exchange) eventually leading to an integrated financial system.
3. For the purposes of facilitating the implementation of the Common Market, the Partner States further agree to:
- (a) co-operate to harmonise and to mutually recognise academic and professional qualifications;
 - (b) co-operate to ensure protection of cross border investments;

- (c) co-ordinate and harmonise their economic, monetary and financial policies;
- (d) co-operate to ensure fair competition and promote consumer welfare;
- (e) co-ordinate their trade relations to govern international trade and trade relations between the Community and third parties;
- (f) co-ordinate and harmonise their transport policies and develop their transport infrastructure modes;
- (g) co-ordinate and harmonise their social policies;
- (h) integrate environmental and natural resources management principles in the activities relating to the Common Market;
- (i) ensure the availability of relevant, timely and reliable statistical data for purposes of the Common Market;
- (j) promote research and technological development within the Community;
- (k) co-operate in the promotion and protection of intellectual property rights;
- (l) promote industrial development for the attainment of sustainable growth and development in the Community; and
- (m) sustainably develop and promote agriculture and ensure food security in the Community.

PART C FREE MOVEMENT OF GOODS

ARTICLE 6 Free Movement of Goods

1. The free movement of goods between the Partner States shall be governed by the Customs Law of the Community as specified in Article 39 of the Protocol on the Establishment of the East African Community Customs Union.

2. In addition to the Customs Law of the Community, the free movement of goods shall be governed by:
 - (a) the East African Community Protocol on Standardisation, Quality Assurance, Metrology and Testing;
 - (b) the East African Community Standardisation, Quality Assurance, Metrology and Testing Act, 2006;
 - (c) the provisions of this Protocol;
 - (d) protocols that may be concluded in the areas of cooperation on sanitary and phyto-sanitary and technical barriers to trade; and
 - (e) any other instruments relevant to the free movement of goods.

PART D FREE MOVEMENT OF PERSONS AND LABOUR

ARTICLE 7 Free Movement of Persons

1. The Partner States hereby guarantee the free movement of persons who are citizens of the other Partner States, within their territories.

2. In accordance with paragraph 1, each Partner State shall ensure non-discrimination of the citizens of the other Partner States based on their nationalities by ensuring:
 - (a) the entry of citizens of the other Partner States into the territory of the Partner State without a visa;
 - (b) free movement of persons who are citizens of the other Partner States within the territory of the Partner State;
 - (c) that the citizens of the other Partner States are allowed to stay in the territory of the Partner State; and
 - (d) that the citizens of the other Partner States are allowed to exit the territory of the Partner State without restrictions.
3. The Partner States shall, in accordance with their national laws, guarantee the protection of the citizens of the other Partner States while in their territories.
4. The free movement of persons shall not exempt from prosecution or extradition, a national of a Partner State who commits a crime in another Partner State.
5. The free movement of persons shall be subject to limitations imposed by the host Partner State on grounds of public policy, public security or public health.
6. A Partner State imposing a limitation under paragraph 5, shall notify the other Partner States accordingly.
7. The Partner States shall effect reciprocal opening of border posts and keep the posts opened and manned for twenty four hours.
8. The movement of refugees within the Community shall be governed by the relevant international conventions.

9. The implementation of this Article shall be in accordance with the East African Community Common Market (Free Movement of Persons) Regulations, specified in Annex I to this Protocol.

ARTICLE 8

Standard Identification System

The Partner States shall establish a common standard system of issuing national identification documents to their nationals which shall be the basis for identifying the citizens of the Partner States within the Community.

ARTICLE 9

Travel Documents

1. A citizen of a Partner State who wishes to travel to another Partner State shall use a valid common standard travel document.
2. The Partner States which have agreed to use machine - readable and electronic national identity cards as travel documents may do so.
3. The Partner States which have agreed to use machine - readable and electronic national identity cards shall work out modalities for the implementation of paragraph 2.

ARTICLE 10

Free Movement of Workers

1. The Partner States hereby guarantee the free movement of workers, who are citizens of the other Partner States, within their territories.

2. For the purposes of paragraph 1, the Partner States shall ensure non discrimination of the workers of the other Partner States, based on their nationalities, in relation to employment, remuneration and other conditions of work and employment.
3. For the purpose of this Article, the free movement of workers shall entitle a worker to:
 - (a) apply for employment and accept offers of employment actually made;
 - (b) move freely within the territories of the Partner States for the purpose of employment;
 - (c) conclude contracts and take up employment in accordance with the contracts, national laws and administrative actions, without any discrimination;
 - (d) stay in the territory of a Partner State for the purpose of employment in accordance with the national laws and administrative procedures governing the employment of workers of that Partner State;
 - (e) enjoy the freedom of association and collective bargaining for better working conditions in accordance with the national laws of the host Partner State; and
 - (f) enjoy the rights and benefits of social security as accorded to the workers of the host Partner State.
4. For the purposes of the implementation of subparagraph (f) of paragraph 3, the Council shall issue directives and make regulations on social security benefits.
5. A worker shall have the right to be accompanied by a spouse and a child, and:
 - (a) a spouse who accompanies the worker shall be entitled to be employed as a worker or to engage in any economic activity as a self employed person in the territory of that Partner State;

- (b) a child who accompanies the worker shall be entitled to be employed as a worker or to engage in any economic activity as a self employed person in the territory of that Partner State subject to the age limits under the national laws of that Partner State.
6. The Partner States shall facilitate the admission of a dependant of a worker in accordance with the national laws of the Partner States.
 7. The office responsible for employment in a Partner State shall facilitate a citizen of another Partner State who seeks employment in the territory of that Partner State to receive the same assistance as would be accorded to a citizen of that Partner State who seeks employment.
 8. The Partner States shall, within the framework of a joint programme, encourage the exchange of young workers amongst the Partner States.
 9. The national laws and administrative procedures of a Partner State shall not apply where the principal aim or effect is to deny citizens of other Partner States the employment that has been offered.
 10. The provisions of this Article shall not apply to employment in the public service unless the national laws and regulations of a host Partner State so permit.
 11. The free movement of workers shall be subject to limitations imposed by the host Partner State on grounds of public policy, public security or public health.
 12. A Partner State imposing a limitation under paragraph 11, shall notify the other Partner States accordingly.

13. The implementation of this Article shall be in accordance with the East African Community Common Market (Free Movement of Workers) Regulations, specified in Annex II to this Protocol.

ARTICLE 11

Harmonisation and Mutual Recognition of Academic and Professional Qualifications

1. For the purpose of ensuring the free movement of labour, the Partner States undertake to:
 - (a) mutually recognise the academic and professional qualifications granted, experience obtained, requirements met, licences or certifications granted, in other Partner States; and
 - (b) harmonise their curricula, examinations, standards, certification and accreditation of educational and training institutions.
2. The implementation of this Article shall be in accordance with Annexes to be concluded by the Partner States.

ARTICLE 12

Harmonisation of Labour Policies, Laws and Programmes

1. The Partner States undertake to harmonise their labour policies, national laws and programmes to facilitate the free movement of labour within the Community.
2. The Partner States undertake to review and harmonise their national social security policies, laws and systems to provide for social security for self-employed persons who are citizens of other Partner States.
3. The implementation of this Article shall be in accordance with directives and regulations issued by the Council.

PART E

RIGHTS OF ESTABLISHMENT AND RESIDENCE

ARTICLE 13

Right of Establishment

1. The Partner States hereby guarantee the right of establishment of nationals of the other Partner States within their territories.
2. For the purposes of paragraph 1, the Partner States shall ensure non discrimination of the nationals of the other Partner States, based on their nationalities.
3. For the purposes of paragraph 1, the right of establishment shall entitle:
 - (a) a national of a Partner State to:
 - (i) take up and pursue economic activities as a self employed person; and
 - (ii) set up and manage economic undertakings, in the territory of another Partner State;
 - (b) a self-employed person who is in the territory of another Partner State to join a social security scheme of that Partner State in accordance with the national laws of that Partner State.
4. The rights applicable to a spouse, child and dependant of a worker under Article 10 of this Protocol shall apply to the spouse, child and dependant of a self employed person.
5. The Partner States shall ensure that all restrictions on the right of establishment based on the nationality of companies, firms and self employed persons of the Partner States are removed, and shall not introduce any new restrictions on the right of establishment in their territories, save as otherwise provided in this Protocol.

6. Companies and firms established in accordance with the national laws of a Partner State and having their registered office, central administration or principal place of business and which undertake substantial economic activities in the Partner State shall, for purposes of establishment, be accorded non discriminatory treatment in other Partner States.
7. For the purposes of undertaking any economic activity in accordance with the provisions of this Article, the Partner States shall mutually recognize the relevant experience obtained, requirements met, licenses and certificates granted to a company or firm in the other Partner States.
8. The right of establishment shall be subject to limitations imposed by the host Partner State on grounds of public policy, public security or public health.
9. A Partner State imposing a limitation under paragraph 8, shall notify the other Partner States accordingly.
10. The provisions of this Protocol shall not prejudice the application of national laws and administrative procedures and practices providing for special treatment for third parties accorded by individual Partner States on grounds of public policy, public security or public health.
11. For the purposes of this Article, the Partner States shall:
 - (a) remove the administrative procedures and practices, resulting from national laws or from agreements previously concluded between the Partner States, that form an obstacle to the right of establishment;
 - (b) progressively remove any administrative procedures and practices resulting from national laws that restrict the right of establishment, in respect of the conditions for:
 - (i) setting up agencies, branches or subsidiaries of companies or firms in their territories; and

- (ii) the entry of personnel of the companies or firms registered in another Partner State into managerial or supervisory positions in agencies, branches or subsidiaries in that Partner State;
 - (c) ensure that workers who are citizens of a Partner State employed in the territory of another Partner State are allowed to remain in that territory for the purpose of taking up economic activities as self-employed persons, where they satisfy the conditions which they would be required to satisfy if they were entering that Partner State at the time when they intended to take up such economic activities;
 - (d) coordinate safeguard measures, which in the interest of the Community, are required for the protection of the companies and firms to ensure that the safeguard measures are similar throughout the Community; and
 - (e) satisfy themselves that the conditions of the right of establishment are not distorted by prohibited subsidies or aid granted by a Partner State to companies or firms owned by the nationals of the Partner State.
12. The implementation of this Article shall be in accordance with the East African Community Common Market (Right of Establishment) Regulations, specified in Annex III to this Protocol.

ARTICLE 14

Right of Residence

1. The Partner States hereby guarantee the right of residence to the citizens of the other Partner States who have been admitted in their territories in accordance with Articles 10 and 13 of this Protocol.
2. The right of residence guaranteed under paragraph 1, shall apply to the spouse, child and a dependant of a worker or self-employed person entitled to rights provided in Articles 10 and 13 of this Protocol.

3. The Partner States shall issue residence permits to citizens of other Partner States who qualify in accordance with the provisions of this Article.
4. The right of residence shall be subject to limitations imposed by the host Partner State on grounds of public policy, public security or public health.
5. A Partner State imposing a limitation under paragraph 4, shall notify the other Partner States accordingly.
6. The provisions of this Article shall not affect any provisions of national laws, administrative procedures and practices of a Partner State which would be more favourable to citizens of the other Partner States.
7. The Partner States hereby agree that matters relating to permanent residence shall be governed by the national policies and laws of the Partner States.
8. The implementation of this Article shall be in accordance with the East African Community Common Market (Right of Residence) Regulations, specified in Annex IV to this Protocol.

ARTICLE 15

Access to and Use of Land and Premises

1. The Partner States hereby agree that access to and use of land and premises shall be governed by the national policies and laws of the Partner States.

2. The rights provided under Articles 13 and 14 in as far as they relate to access to and use of land and premises shall be subject to this Article.

PART F FREE MOVEMENT OF SERVICES

ARTICLE 16 Free Movement of Services

1. The Partner States hereby guarantee the free movement of services supplied by nationals of Partner States and the free movement of service suppliers who are nationals of the Partner States within the Community.
2. The free movement of services shall cover the supply of services:
 - (a) from the territory of a Partner State into the territory of another Partner State;
 - (b) in the territory of a Partner State to service consumers from another Partner State;
 - (c) by a service supplier of a Partner State, through commercial presence of the service supplier in the territory of another Partner State; and
 - (d) by the presence of a service supplier, who is a citizen of a Partner State, in the territory of another Partner State.
3. In fulfilling their obligations and commitments under this Part, the Partner States shall take such measures to ensure the observance of the measures by local governments and local authorities and non governmental bodies within the Partner States.
4. The measures to be taken by the Partner States under paragraph 3 include any laws and administrative actions taken by:

- (a) national governments, local governments or local authorities;
and
 - (b) non-governmental bodies in the exercise of powers delegated by national governments, local governments or local authorities.
5. For the purposes of paragraph 1, the Partner States shall progressively remove existing restrictions and shall not introduce any new restrictions on the provision of services in the Partner States, by nationals of other Partner States except as otherwise provided in this Protocol.
6. Without prejudice to any other provisions of this Protocol, a person providing a service may, in order to provide the service, temporarily engage in activities related to the service in the Partner State, where the service is to be supplied, under the same conditions as are applicable to the nationals of the Partner State.
7. For the purposes of this Part “services” includes:
- (a) services in any sector except services supplied in the exercise of governmental authority which are not provided on a commercial basis or in competition with one or more service suppliers;
 - (b) services normally provided for remuneration, in so far as they are not governed by the provisions relating to free movement of goods, capital and persons.

ARTICLE 17

National Treatment

1. Each Partner State shall accord to services and service suppliers of other Partner States, treatment not less favourable than that accorded to similar services and service suppliers of the Partner State.

2. For the purposes of fulfilling the requirement of paragraph 1, each Partner State may accord to services and service suppliers of other Partner States, either formally identical treatment or formally different treatment to that it accords to like services and service suppliers of the Partner State.
3. Formally identical or formally different treatment shall be considered to be less favourable if it modifies the conditions of competition in favour of services or service suppliers of the Partner State compared to like services or service suppliers of the other Partner States.

ARTICLE 18

Most Favoured Nation Treatment

Each Partner State shall upon the coming into force of this Protocol, accord unconditionally, to services and service suppliers of the other Partner States, treatment no less favourable than that it accords to like services and service suppliers of other Partner States or any third party or a customs territory.

ARTICLE 19

Notification

1. Each Partner State shall promptly notify the Council of all measures of general application affecting the free movement of services at the entry into force of this Protocol.
2. The Partner States shall notify the Council of any international agreements pertaining to or affecting trade in services with third parties that they are signatory to, prior to and after the entry into force of this Protocol.
3. Where a Partner State submits a notification to the Council under paragraph 2, the Secretariat shall transmit a copy of that notification to the other Partner States.

4. Each Partner State shall, promptly and at least annually, inform the Council of the introduction of any new national laws or administrative guidelines, or any changes to existing laws or administrative guidelines which affect trade in services provided for in this Protocol.
5. Each Partner State shall respond promptly to any request by another Partner State for specific information on any of its measures of general application or international agreements.
6. The Council may make decisions on the measures or international agreements referred to in this Article.

ARTICLE 20

Domestic Regulation

1. The Partner States may regulate their services sectors in accordance with their national policy objectives provided that the measures are consistent with the provisions of this Protocol and do not constitute barriers to trade in services.
2. The Partner States shall ensure that all measures of general application affecting trade in services are administered in a reasonable, objective and impartial manner.

ARTICLE 21

General Exceptions to Trade in Services

1. Subject to the requirement that measures are not applied in a manner which would constitute a means of arbitrary or unjustifiable discrimination between Partner States where like conditions prevail, or a disguised restriction on trade in services, nothing in this Part shall be construed to prevent the adoption or enforcement by any Partner State of measures:
 - (a) necessary to protect public morals or to maintain public order;
 - (b) necessary to protect human, animal or plant life or health;
 - (c) necessary to secure compliance with laws or regulations which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Part including those relating to:
 - (i) the prevention of deceptive and fraudulent practices or which deal with the effects of a default on services contracts;
 - (ii) the protection of the privacy of individuals in relation to the processing and dissemination of personal data and the protection of confidentiality of individual records and accounts; and
 - (iii) safety;
 - (d) inconsistent with Article 17 of this Protocol, provided that the difference in treatment is aimed at ensuring the equitable or effective imposition or collection of direct taxes in respect of services or service suppliers of other Partner States; or
 - (e) inconsistent with Article 18 of this Protocol, provided that the difference in treatment is the result of an agreement on the avoidance of double taxation or provisions on the avoidance of double taxation in any other international agreement or arrangement by which the Partner State is bound.
2. Pursuant to subparagraph (d) of paragraph 1, measures that are aimed at ensuring the equitable or effective imposition or collection of direct taxes include measures taken by a Partner State under its taxation system which:

- (a) apply to non-resident service suppliers in recognition of the fact that the tax obligation of non-residents is determined with respect to taxable items sourced or located in the territory of the Partner States;
- (b) apply to non-residents in order to ensure the imposition or collection of taxes in the territory of the Partner States;
- (c) apply to non-residents or residents in order to prevent the avoidance or evasion of taxes, including compliance measures;
- (d) apply to consumers of services supplied in or from the territory of another Partner State in order to ensure the imposition or collection of taxes on such consumers derived from sources in the territory of the Partner States;
- (e) distinguish service suppliers subject to tax on worldwide taxable items from other service suppliers, in recognition of the difference in the nature of the tax base between them; or
- (f) determine, allocate or apportion income, profit, gain, loss, deduction or credit of resident citizens, companies or firms or the branches of the companies or firms, or between related companies or firms or their branches, in order to safeguard the tax base of the Partner State.

ARTICLE 22

Security Exceptions on Trade in Services

1. Nothing in this Part shall be construed:
 - (a) to require any Partner State to furnish any information, the disclosure of which it considers contrary to its essential security interests;
 - (b) to prevent any Partner State from taking any action which it considers necessary for the protection of its essential security interests:
 - (i) relating to the supply of services carried out directly or indirectly for the purpose of provisioning a military establishment;
